Dear 4-H Member,

Do you like a challenge and are interested in Canadian agriculture? Would you like to share your enthusiasm for agriculture with an interested audience? Does the opportunity to win a substantial cash prize appeal to you? Are you 11 to 24 years old?

If you answered yes to these questions, the Canadian Young Speakers for Agriculture (CYSA) invites you to compete in the 26th Annual competition at the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto, Ontario, Saturday, November 6, 2010.

CYSA brings dynamic young leaders from across Canada to the Royal each year to discuss their passion for agriculture in an annual speaking competition. Winners can take home as much as $1000.00 in cash for their efforts.

Competitors are required to give a speech on a topic chosen by the CYSA topic selection committee. This year's topics are:

- Canadian Agricultural Hall of Fame – profile someone and share their impact
- Who will feed the world in 50 years?
- What is the biggest challenge in agriculture today?
- Exploring First Nations agriculture in Canada
- What are the biggest events in Canadian agricultural history?

The deadline for applications is September 30, 2010. For more information please visit the CYSA website at <http://www.cysa-joca.ca/index.php> or contact Ted Young, CYSA Chairman at tedyoung@sympatico.ca.

Look forward to seeing you at the Royal!

Sincerely,

Eric Dalke
President
Canadian Young Speakers for Agriculture
