Southwest Sleepover Extravaganza
Pizza---Movies---Games---Snacks---Fun---New Friends

This fun filled event held Friday, December 4th to Saturday, December 5th at the Ag Centre in Brandon began with icebreaker activities and then onto the workshops.

Junior members got to see how agriculture effects our daily lives. Forty-three Juniors enjoyed the Where's Agriculture display, crushed canola, did puzzle races and answered agriculture trivia questions while playing Ker-Plunk and other fun games. Everyone received a cool sleepover flashlight.

Intermediate members competed the Amazing Race. Groups of two had to sew on a button, put on party hose while wearing oven mitts, texted the 4-H pledge to one another, built the tallest structure from marshmallows and spaghetti, and hammered and nailed. Everyone received a 4-H toque. Winners accepted a "4-H Family Lives Here" sign and $15 movie gift certificate.

Senior members learned how to do a job search, fill out job applications, interviews and other valuable skills. Everyone received a USB data stick full of useful information.

Following the workshops members ate pizza, played Rockband Wii, watched movies and ate a lot of popcorn!

One junior member said that he brought a small tent, because he didn't know anybody there, except his mom. He was wrong! He met new buddies and he picked his buddies over his mom to sleep in the tent. He had a lot of fun and will come back for next year.

Thank you parents and volunteers for your help to make this such a great event!
