Senior Members—Just For You

1. If you attend provincial Skills & Thrills Conference in Winnipeg, Oct. 23-25, Red River Council will assist with the $125 registration fee. First 10 members to apply will receive $75.00. Check the web for conference details, and check with your council reps for details on how to apply for assistance.
2. Members 15 and over can apply for a scholarship to assist with costs for educational or leadership development workshops, courses or conferences. Application deadline: January 5, 2010. Contact Philip Fenez or Linda Sprung.
3. Senior Member Challenge—watch for more details for this February event. It will be a technology based event - lots of learning and lots of fun.

Leaders - Take Note ....

Red River 4-H Council has planned a meeting for you on November 28th, 9a.m. - 3 pm. at Carman Collegiate.

It will be a chance to meet other leaders, share ideas about projects and club meetings, listen to a speaker and enjoy a FREE LUNCH.

No Registration Fee. Just come, sit back, and be challenged and motivated for another year of 4-H leadership.

Congratulations to Red River Area leaders who were awarded trips to the National 4-H Leader's Conference in Toronto, November 4—8, 2009.

Carrie Hennan, Roland 4-H Beef club and Jennifer Kolesar, Morden Achievers will join 2 other leaders from Manitoba as they travel to Toronto for this conference.

Did You Know?

Orville Redenbacher (1907-1995) was raised on a farm, and began growing popcorn as a 4-H project?

Stanley Ag. Society

The "CIBC Most Active 4-H Club Award" Special was awarded again this year at the Harvest Festival and Exhibition at Winkler.

First prize of $300 was awarded to Roland 4-H Beef Club and second prize of $200 was awarded to Winkler 4-H Beef Club. Congratulations to these 2 clubs.

These awards are given to the clubs that have the most 4-H exhibit entries (calculated as a % of club membership).
